

The New Deal and its Programs

1. Roll the dice. Lowest roller goes first.
2. Roll the dice and move the rolled number of spaces.
3. Have someone else ask you the question for the color you land on.
4. If you answer correctly, you get 1 point.
5. If you answer incorrectly, you get no points.
6. The next player rolls the dice and moves.
7. Play continues until the amount of time specified by your teacher is over.
8. Don't switch cards until you run out of questions or someone lands on a color that has already been asked on that card.
9. The winner is the player with the most points at the end of the round.
